Hello,

Here is the 10am qualitative analysis. Today we are going to see if the general population understand the volume of protesters in each city (Ottawa, Toronto, Quebec City, etc.) and also test against certain scenarios that can be enacted under the state of emergency that was declared over the weekend.

I will send another update this afternoon.

Best regards,

Lee Thompson

Hi guys,

Given that today is the Lord's Day, we are starting to see some of the real agenda here. Attached are religious images being passed around on social among the "protesters".

More evidence this isn't really about vaccine mandates. It's a movement by right wing Christians who used mandates as a pretense to gain a following and privileged access as "protesters"

If they'd said "join us for a christian rally in Ottawa" no one would have come.
